James W. Walter, chairman of the Celotex Corporation, announced last week that the corporation had acquired all of the outstanding stock of the Crawford Door Company of Detroit, Mich. The company manufactures and distributes upward-acting doors and automatic operating devices for residential, commercial and industrial use. One of their production facilities is in Terrell, Tex.

Walter, president and founder of Jim Walter Corporation, Tampa, Fla., was elected to the newly created post of chairman of the board and chief executive at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Celotex Corporation in February.

Jim Walter Corporation last July announced its acquisition of about one-third of the 1,018, 651 outstanding shares of Celotex, subsequently increasing its holdings to approximately 50%.

Henry W. Collins remains as president and all other officers were re-elected. Collins, in presiding for the annual meeting, declined to make a specific forecast but did say current sales are running ahead of a year ago by approximately 13 per cent and he was confident the company would have a profitable year in spite of the continued depressed prices on many of the company's products.

Locally, the Celotex Hamlin Plant has increased the number of work days for a employees and a great deal of improvement is being made at the plant. A warehouse extension is now under construction by T. E. Shelburne and Sons of Snyder, a former Hamlin company. New equipment is also being added.

FEED GRAIN SIGNUP TIME IS LIMITED

R. B. Rowland, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service County office manager, stressed today that the amount of time left for feed grain farmers of this county to sign up to take part in the 1963 feed grain program is limited.

In his statement, the official gave details of some parts of the program. . . growers participating in the program will receive acreage by at least 20 per cent on the farm which is put into the program, and that they will not exceed the feed grain base acreage on any other farm in which the same farmer has an interest in the feed grain crops—corn, grain sorghum, or barley.

Farmers taking part in the program may request an advance payment at the time they sign up to divert feed grain acreage into a conservation use.

Rowland took the occasion also to make a report on the progress of the signup in Jones County. He said that up to March 11, 459 farmers of this county have signed their intention to participate. This represents 27 per cent of the feed grain farms of the county.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the offices of the secretaries, Cassie and Wilson, Tuesday night. The number of merchants present and the interest manifested gave proof that the Retail Merchants' Association is a go. . . . When ever the rural communities take enough interest in themselves to build and keep up the spirit of improvement there is yet hope for the country. That is what is going on at Neinda, six miles south of Hamlin. Down there they are building a new Odd Fellows Hall and it is understood that a new church for the Methodist is to be built.

PAINT . . . Protects wood and metal GOD'S WORD . . . Protects the soul

As paint protects wood and metal from decay, rust, and corrosion, so the promises found in God's word protect the soul from the evils of sin, anxiety and despair. Hear God's wonderful promises proclaimed from the pulpit in the church of your choice this Sunday. These promises so heard will accomplish wonderful things in your soul and heart, for God says of His Word, "It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

March is here with all of its wind and sand. Since it has been five months since we have received any amount of rain, the sand is really blowing, and will continue to blow until some form of moisture stops it. People are beginning to wonder if that moisture is coming, for we can't forget that it does happen here sometimes.

The Family night supper and get-together, was a big success last Friday night, when the entire church went to Rotan, to the pastor's home.

JUST LIKE OLD MAN RIVER

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense?

Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.

gether. They reported a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Albany Sunday, to her brothers, Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, to visit with them and her mother, Mrs. John Ash, who was visiting them. Mrs. Ash had been ill but was much better at the time of their visit.

When the Jones arrived home Sunday afternoon they were greeted by a number of relatives, who had come to surprise him with a birthday supper, having brought all of the fixings with them. Those coming for the event were, a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Jones, Stamford, and a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dillard, Abilene, a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jones and boys, another nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Bob were also on hand. Mr. Jones' son, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jones and children, Abilene, a son, Jones and baby, all of Stamford birthday will be Tuesday of this week but we didn't learn his age for publication.

Rev. and Mrs. Derrel Lewis and children, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford and children, Sunday.

In case any one is wondering about our "religious coon", we can report that H. L. Ford and Fred Rosenbaum found him in the attic and had their gun on him, but in the excitement H. L. dropped his flashlight, so Mr. Coon got away, and is still a tenant in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kiser from Plains visited with Mrs. Kiser's mother, Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, and other relatives over the week end.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

"GENTLEMEN PREFERRED"

Dear Amy:

My husband and I run a boarding house. Recently a man, about 10 years younger than I, rented a room.

At first, I thought this man was kidding me, but as the weeks wore on, I realized he was getting too friendly.

If my husband finds out what this fellow is up to, there will be fireworks.

How can I get rid of this boarder before something really pops?

No Vacancy

Dear No Vacancy:

Do what any respectable landlady would do. Tell the boarder to move out and to be quick about it. Change that "No Vacancy" to "Room for Rent—Gentleman Preferred."

Dear Amy:

I am 36 years old and I have known many people but I have yet to meet anyone I would really call a good friend. When I really needed some help my so-called friends weren't around. They all seemed to be envious when I told them of the things I bought, the shows I saw or the places I visited. They became wet blankets when I told them of my ideas for my home, family or the future.

The treatment I received didn't stop me from doing whatever I could for them whenever they needed me. It seemed I was always giving and they were always taking.

My husband told me to wise up and that I didn't need them, but it seems wrong to me not to have a friend in the world.

Are there any people left in the world that could be called a real friend?

Disillusioned

Dear Disillusioned:

People are only human. If you don't expect too much from them, you won't be disappointed. There are many wonderful people in this world of ours, the kind who know what real friendship means and who would appreciate your well-meaning efforts. You just haven't met them as yet but I sincerely hope you do.

Dear Amy:

Several years ago I met a beautiful girl with whom I fell in love. We have been seeing each other for about a year now. She has told me many times that she loves me. I have a good job making sufficient money to support a wife. But every time I speak of marriage she becomes quite cool and says she is not ready for this big step. I want to marry her now. What should I do? She is 22. Impatient

Dear Impatient:

Unless your girl is very immature, she should be anxious, ready and willing. Try not to see her for several weeks. Perhaps the realization of losing you will turn the trick.—GOOD LUCK!

Dear Amy:

I'm frantic with worry! My husband and I saved some money from our household expenses. It was $366 to be exact and we kept the money in the house. Last week we had to be away overnight. Being afraid of burglars I thought of hiding the money in the oven just to play safe. The next evening completely forgetting about the money I lit the oven and started to prepare dinner.

Well, you know the rest. By the time I remembered, the money was badly burnt. All I have left now are the burnt pieces and if I tell my husband he might go to pieces. What can I possibly do?

A Frantic Wife

Dear Frantic:

You really made a Boo-Boo, but all hope is not lost. Take all the burnt pieces to your nearest Federal Reserve Bank and tell them the story. They are more than fair and will replace all they legally can. Hereafter, use the oven just for "dough that rises."

Dear Amy:

I am wild over a certain boy. I would like to go out with him very much but I can't go up to him and ask him for a date. How can I hint around at least a little?

Susan

Dear Susan:

The best approach is the direct one. Plan a party with your girl friends and invite him as your date. Let him know that you would enjoy his company again. If he enjoyed yours, he will take the hint.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER PUZZLES OVER POINT IN EXPLORING TOO HOT VENUS IN A MORTGAGED ROCKET SHIP

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One takes a dismal view of space exploration this week, but he may have his tongue in his cheek.

Dear editor:

As I understand it, scientists have now compiled a lot of information radioed back to earth by the rocket which traveled ten million miles or so on its way to Venus, and while I don't want to brag, it sure does bear out some of my suspicions about outer space.

According to this information, Venus has a temperature of 800 degrees and winds that blow 200 miles a second.

This is what I've been talking about. I mean, what if we explore all the planets there are and still don't find one that has one-tenth the advantages of the one we've already got? I guess it's interesting to know that a weather forecast on Venus would read: High tomorrow 800 degrees, low 799, continued steam, wind out of the south-southwest at 200 miles a second, but I'm not sure it's worth what it cost.

What if we'd sent a rocket with pilots aboard out there and they circled the planet as close as they could without getting scorched and then came on back home? What this would have amounted to was a flight of ten million miles in a mortgaged rocket to find a planet that can't be lived on. You've got to remember that all this space exploration is being done on borrowed money, which is all right if we can ever find anything that justifies it, but this report from Venus ain't too encouraging.

Of course, there are millions more out there and if we keep looking long enough we may find something, but a man who

SPECIALIST URGES FARMERS TO PLANT BEST SEED AVAILABLE

College Station — High crop yields of quality start with the planting of the best available seed. It is true, says Lee Coffey, extension agronomist, that good planting seed may cost slightly more but the few pennies per acre are about the cheapest insurance to be had.

Before planting any seed a farmer should be able to answer these questions posed by Coffey. Is the variety or hybrid adapted and recommended for the area? Is the seed high in variety purity? Will they germinate high for the particular crop? Was the germination test made within the last six months? Is the seed free from weed seeds which will cost time and money to get rid of in the future? Is the seed free from troublesome seeds of similar varieties or other crops?

If the answer is "no" or "I don't know," Coffey says you don't know enough about your planting seed to plant them. Replanting increases the cost of production and upsets the time table of work and poor stands do not produce top yields, explains the agronomist.

It is true that the cost of seed is a minor one in the whole farming operation, points out Coffey, but seed are the reason the farmer plows, fertilizes, irrigates and harvests. Therefore, he adds, it is just good business to start with the best.

He suggests a close check of the tag on the seed container for the information that is needed to insure seed quality. And for detailed information on the best adapted varieties and hybrids for any particular area, visit with the local county agent. Also, on the same visit, Coffey suggests you check with him on the latest information on cultural practices.

Area Churches Asked to Take Part In H-SU Days

Abilene — Baptist churches of the Abilene area are being asked to observe "Hardin-Simmons University Days" May 5 and May 12 by inviting H-SU ministerial students to speak at their Sunday services.

These are the two Sundays many pastors may be absent from their churches to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Mo. Thus, use of the ministerial students for the church services will help meet the supply needs of pastors and churches in the area. It was pointed out by Dr. Clyde J. Hurst, sponsor of the H-SU Ministerial Alliance.

The two Sundays also will fill a need of ministerial students by providing them with an opportunity to preach and gain experience in that field, Dr. Hurst said.

Executive board of District 17 of the Baptist General Convention of Texas has endorsed the "Hardin-Simmons University Days" program and the Rev. L. L. Trott, district missions secretary, is making contacts with churches in the area to help line up the ministerial students as supply preachers.

SAFETY MEASURES FOR USE OF TOXIC INSECTICIDES GIVEN

Today is not only the Space Age. It is also the Chemical Age.

One of the main benefits of living in this chemical age is availability of numerous pesticides. They have been essential for the improvement of our agricultural output and therefore for raising our standard of living. Also, these pesticides have been helpful in the control of many insect borne diseases.

Unfortunately, the most effective pesticides are often the most toxic and precautions against them the most difficult to enforce. In 1962, 13 Texans died as a result of mishandling of these toxic materials.

With the increased use of these highly toxic materials, both at home and in industry, it is essential that we stress safety measures at every opportunity. Listed below are some important points to remember when handling and using toxic insecticides.

1. Follow the instructions on the manufacturer's label to the smallest detail.

2. Store toxic sprays and dust away from children and irresponsible individuals, as livestock, foods and animal feeds.

3. All regular handlers of phosphorous insecticides should have cholinesterase tests at regular intervals not greater than 10 days during the periods they are working with the materials.

4. All applicators should avoid breathing dust, vapors, or spray from insecticides.

5. Respirators, which meet the specifications of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, should be worn when handling or working around highly toxic insecticides.

6. Freshly laundered protective clothing and gloves should be worn when sprays and dust are being applied.

7. If toxic insecticides are spilled on the skin or clothing, work should be suspended and the person involved should bathe and change clothes.

8. Individuals handling toxic insecticides should bathe and change clothes immediately after completing jobs or during any extensive breaks.

9. All personnel and livestock should be protected from drifts of spray or dust.

10. When toxic insecticides are applied to agricultural plants such as cotton or grain the fields should not be reentered for three days after application.

11. Toxic insecticides should be kept away from flames and sparks when being diluted for application since many solvents used in preparing insecticides are highly inflammable. (Feature from the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Legislators have received two proposals for spending the state's money during the two years starting September 1.

One came from Gov. John Connally, the other from the House Appropriations Committee.

Governor Connally's suggestions marked the first time a new governor had tried to work worth of salary increases for faculty members and more research and library facilities, as a means of holding good professors and attracting new ones.

To finance his program, Connally suggested that the "temporary" corporation franchise surtax, which has been extended twice before, be retained. It would provide about $11,000,000 a year.

He also suggested that the 1961 sales tax law be revised to begin taxing clothing under $10, farm implements and all sales of food by restaurants, and to raise the sales tax on cars and trucks from 1.5 to 2 per cent.

Clothing tax proposals would bring in $10,000,000 a year. Motor vehicle tax increase would provide $2,500,000. Farm implements tax would run $1,000,000.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

increase the annual motor vehicle registration fee by $1 with the income going to our state parks.

If the Legislature approves Cole's license plate cost increase, the question will be submitted to voters at the general election of November, 1964.

Choose the electric QUANTA, or the manual PRIMA 20. Both are complete, handy and priced right. One, for sure, can figure profitably in your office.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

Fire quickly developed from rural legislators over the proposed expenditures totaling about $3,100,000,000 during the coming two years.

Before Connally laid out his proposals to the legislature, he invited Texas newspaper editors to Austin to show them how the state's complicated fiscal structure works. His "illustrated lecture" revealed that the legislature has actual control over only 15 per cent of the $3,100,000,000. Rest already is earmarked by constitutional and statutory provisions.

WILL FARMERS FOOT EDUCATION BOOST? — When Rep. Don Garrison of Houston spread before the House Revenue and Taxation committee his bill to boost the Available School Fund by $3,000,000 a year, a spokesman for Texas farmers and ranchers registered a strong protest.

Garrison plans to get the additional $3,000,000 by amending the state law that allows a 98 1/2 per cent exemption refund from the State Motor Fuel Tax for gasoline not consumed on the highways. His bill would cut the refund to 73 1/2 per cent.

That 25 per cent cut would be credited to the school fund.

Charles H. Huff of the Texas Farm Bureau said almost half of the new school fund money—about $1,500,000 a year—"would be coming out of the pockets of farmers and ranchers."

They get motor fuel refunds of about $5,700,000 a year—or 49.11 per cent of the usual total refunded. Much of their refund comes from motor fuel taxes paid on farm machinery.

Airlines and private plane owners, who get about 30 per cent of the refunds, would be the second biggest contributor to education under Garrison's bill.

Four members of the subcommittee named to study the bill are from ranch or farm country—Reps. George Cook of Odessa, Ben Barnes of DeLeon, William Day's of Midland, and James L. Slider of Naples. Rep. F. Lee Duggan Jr. of Houston is the fifth member.

HOUSE VACANCY ELECTION — As soon as government officials began recovering from the shock of the news of the sudden highway death of Rep. James L. Lattimore of Corpus Christi, they began studying the election code to see what must be done about filling the seat he left vacant in the House of Representatives.

Customarily, if a vacancy occurs in the legislature when it's not in session, the governor leaves the calling of the election up to local officials.

But since the 58th Legislature will be in regular session until May 27, Governor Connally is expected to move fast to provide Nueces County with a needed voice in legislation. A late-April election date has been predicted.

Law states that the governor must call an election within 20 days. But it also provides that candidates must file 30 days before the election.

Last time a tragic death crippled the Legislature was on March 23, 1957, when the late Charlie Heitmann, representative from the Nacogdoches area, died. Gov. Price Daniel gave election notice on March 28 of that year. A new representative was elected in May, in time to spend some three weeks with the 55th Legislature.

MINERAL ESTATE TAX PROPOSALS — Proposals to set up tax procedures on mineral estates, severed from the land, have been filed by Reps. Emmett Lack of Kountze and Clyde Haynes of Vidor.

Proposals are part of a package that should be favored by small-tract landowners and independent oil and gas producers.

One piece of the package is a constitutional amendment to increase the Railroad Commission from three to five members.

Second would give the Legislature the authority to "establish the duration of any interest in an undeveloped mineral estate."

Texas Landowners and Independent Oil and Gas Operators Association contends that some major oil companies hold onto undeveloped mineral interests for an unreasonable length of time.

Two other bills by Lack and Haynes are aimed at forcing development of mineral interests.

One provides that mineral interests would revert to the owner of surface land if no development attempt is made for 10 years.

Second provides for a county tax assessment of no less than $5 an acre, if the mineral estate isn't developed.

Rep. Bob Bass of DeKalb proposes a 25-cent minimum tax assessment on each acre of undeveloped mineral estates.

STRONG SUPPORT FOR SCREWORM BILL — Rep. Jack Clark of Nocona had 50 co-signers lined up when he introduced a bill to provide $2,840,837 as the State's matching share of the $12,000,000 federal-state-private screwworm eradication program.

Since it is backed by Gov. Connally's strong recommendation the bill should be off to a good start.

But the House Appropriations Committee didn't include a provision for screwworm eradication in its 300-plus page appropriations bill.

Crain said Legislators would seek a separate appropriation to cover the proposed state contribution.

CARS FOR COMMISSIONERS — When county commissioners stopped asking the legislature to authorize horses and wagons and won the right to drive pickup trucks on their appointed rounds, they thought they were thoroughly mechanized.

As their operations became more streamlined and pickups no longer were necessary, some switched to automobiles. But a pickup is not an automobile, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr ruled. So Williamson, Cochran, Hockley, Terry and Yoakum counties are asking authority from the 58th Legislature to buy cars for their commissioners.

Harris, Tarrant and some Panhandle counties discovered the difference for themselves some time ago. They already have authority to decide whether pickups or autos would be best for commissioners' transportation.

BLANKET HOSPITAL BILL — Last November, Texas voters decided to let the Legislature authorize the creation of hospital districts. Already many bills have been filed to create individual districts.

Now Rep. H. G. Wells of Tulsa proposes legislation to give every county the right to create a hospital district within its own boundaries.

Years Ago...

The Hamlin Retail Merchants' Association has been in working operation just a little over a month. A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the offices of the secretaries, Cassie and Wilson, Tuesday night. The number of merchants present and the interest manifested gave proof that the Retail Merchants' Association is a go. . . . When ever the rural communities take enough interest in themselves to build and keep up the spirit of improvement there is yet hope for the country. That is what is going on at Neinda, six miles south of Hamlin. Down there they are building a new Odd Fellows Hall and it is understood that a new church for the Methodist is to be built.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Cotton farmers of the Hamlin section, along with those of the rest of the Cotton Belt, will vote Saturday on cotton marketing quotas. . . . Starr Inzer, Gerald Morgan and Meddie Mae Bynum returned Monday evening from a business trip to Dallas. . . . Dorothy Hines was one of the 15 highest ranking students named on the honor roll of Draughn's Business College at Abilene for month of February.

Hamlin had raised $329 Tuesday, about one-third of its quota. . . . G. R. Bennett and L. H. McBride have withdrawn from the race for aldermen for the City of Hamlin. Remaining candidates for the posts are B. M. Brundage, Arlie Cassie, Clyde Huff, and W. L. Cash.

TEN YEARS AGO

More showers fell in the Hamlin region over the week end to bring the year's total to 1.23 inches, according to Bill Rountree, government gauger. Still no water has been caught for months in Hamlin South Lake, the city's water supply. . . . A blast caused by the accumulation of natural gas under the office of Dr. J. W. McCrary Tuesday evening did an estimated $3,500 damage. No one was in the building at the time, and no one was injured. . . . The Hamlin plant of the Celotex Corporation has been awarded a certificate for a record of safety for the past year.

FIVE YEARS AGO

PAINT . . . Protects wood and metal
GOD'S WORD . . . Protects the soul
As paint protects wood and metal from decay, rust, and corrosion, so the promises found in God's word protect the soul from the evils of sin, anxiety and despair. Hear God's wonderful promises proclaimed from the pulpit in the church of your choice this Sunday. These promises so heard will accomplish wonderful things in your soul and heart, for God says of His Word, "It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

March is here with all of its wind and sand. Since it has been five months since we have received any amount of rain, the sand is really blowing, and will continue to blow until some form of moisture stops it. People are beginning to wonder if that moisture is coming, for we can't forget that it does happen here sometimes.

The Family night supper and get together was a big success last Friday night, when the entire church went to Rotan, to the pastor's home.

JUST LIKE OLD MAN RIVER

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense?

Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hodnett, Kay and Billy, went to Lubbock Friday afternoon, to attend the Class AA Regional 1 Tournament. Kay plays basketball on the Hamlin team. The Hamlin girls beat one game, Lakeview of San Angelo, but were beaten in the finals by Friona. Better luck next time, girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum had their children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum, Pampa, with them over the week end.

gether. They reported a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Albany Sunday, to her brothers, Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, to visit with them and her mother, Mrs. John Ash, who was visiting them. Mrs. Ash had been ill but was much better at the time of their visit.

When the Jones arrived home Sunday afternoon they were greeted by a number of relatives, who had come to surprise him with a birthday supper, having brought all of the fixings with them. Those coming for the event were, a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Jones, Stamford, and a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dillard, Abilene, a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jones and boys, another nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Bob were also on hand. Mr. Jones' father, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jones and children, Abilene, a son, Jones and baby, all of Stamford will be Tuesday of this week but we didn't learn his age for publication.

Rev. and Mrs. Derrel Lewis and children, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford and children, Sunday.

In case any one is wondering about our "religious con", we can report that H. L. Ford and Fred Rosenbaum found him in the attic and had their gun on him, but in the excitement H. L. dropped his flashlight, so Mr. Coon got away, and is still a tenant in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kiser from Plains visited with Mrs. Kiser's mother, Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, and other relatives over the week end.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

"GENTLEMEN PREFERRED"

Dear Amy:

My husband and I run a boarding house. Recently a man, about 10 years younger than I, rented a room.

At first, I thought this man was kidding me, but as the weeks wore on, I realized he was getting too friendly.

If my husband finds out what this fellow is up to, there will be fireworks.

How can I get rid of this boarder before something really pops?

No Vacancy

Dear No Vacancy:

Do what any respectable landlady would do. Tell the boarder to move out and to be quick about it. Change that "No Vacancy" to "Room for Rent—Gentleman Preferred."

Dear Amy:

I am 36 years old and I have known many people but I have yet to meet anyone I would really call a good friend. When I really needed some help my so-called friends weren't around. They all seemed to be envious when I told them of the things I bought, the shows I saw or the places I visited. They became wet blankets when I told them of my ideas for my home, family or the future.

The treatment I received didn't stop me from doing whatever I could for them whenever they needed me. It seemed I was always giving and they were always taking.

My husband told me to wise up and that I didn't need them, but it seems wrong to me not to have a friend in the world.

Are there any people left in the world that could be called a real friend?

Disillusioned

Dear Disillusioned:

People are only human. If you don't expect too much from them, you won't be disappointed. There are many wonderful people in this world of ours, the kind who know what real friendship means and who would appreciate your well-meaning efforts. You just haven't met them as yet but I sincerely hope you do.

Dear Amy:

Several years ago I met a beautiful girl with whom I fell in love. We have been seeing each other for about a year now. She has told me many times that she loves me. I have a good job making sufficient money to support a wife. But every time I speak of marriage she becomes quite cool and says she is not ready for this big step. I want to marry her now. What should I do? She is 22. Impatient

Dear Impatient:

Unless your girl is very immature, she should be anxious, ready and willing. Try not to see her for several weeks. Perhaps the realization of losing you will turn the trick.—GOOD LUCK!

Dear Amy:

I'm frantic with worry! My husband and I saved some money from our household expenses. It was $366 to be exact and we kept the money in the house. Last week we had to be away overnight. Being afraid of burglars I thought of hiding the money in the oven just to play safe. The next evening completely forgetting about the money I lit the oven and started to prepare dinner.

Well, you know the rest. By the time I remembered, the money was badly burnt. All I have left now are the burnt pieces and if I tell my husband he might go to pieces. What can I possibly do?

A Frantic Wife

Dear Frantic:

You really made a Boo-Boo, but all hope is not lost. Take all the burnt pieces to your nearest Federal Reserve Bank and tell them the story. They are more than fair and will replace all they legally can. Hereafter, use the oven just for "dough that rises."

Dear Amy:

I am wild over a certain boy. I would like to go out with him very much but I can't go up to him and ask him for a date. How can I hint around at least a little?

Susan

Dear Susan:

The best approach is the direct one. Plan a party with your girl friends and invite him as your date. Let him know that you would enjoy his company again. If he enjoys yours, he will take the hint.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER PUZZLES OVER POINT IN EXPLORING TOO HOT VENUS IN A MORTGAGED ROCKET SHIP

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One takes a dismal view of space exploration this week, but he may have his tongue in his cheek.

Dear editor:

As I understand it, scientists have now compiled a lot of information radioed back to earth by the rocket which traveled ten million miles or so on its way to Venus, and while I don't want to brag, it sure does bear out some of my suspicions about outer space.

According to this information, Venus has a temperature of 800 degrees and winds that blow 200 miles a second.

This is what I've been talking about. I mean, what if we explore all the planets there are and still don't find one that has one-tenth the advantages of the one we've already got? I guess it's interesting to know that a weather forecast on Venus would read: High tomorrow 800 degrees, low 799, continued steam, wind out of the south-southwest at 200 miles a second, but I'm not sure it's worth what it cost.

What if we'd sent a rocket with pilots aboard out there and they circled the planet as close as they could without getting scorched and then came on back home? What this would have amounted to was a flight of ten million miles in a mortgaged rocket to find a planet that can't be lived on. You've got to remember that all this space exploration is being done on borrowed money, which is all right if we can ever find anything that justifies it, but this report from Venus ain't too encouraging.

Of course, there are millions more out there and if we keep looking long enough we may find something, but a man who

SPECIALIST URGES FARMERS TO PLANT BEST SEED AVAILABLE

College Station — High crop yields of quality start with the planting of the best available seed. It is true, says Lee Coffey, extension agronomist, that good planting seed may cost slightly more but the few pennies per acre are about the cheapest insurance to be had.

Before planting any seed a farmer should be able to answer these questions posed by Coffey: Is the variety or hybrid adapted and recommended for the area? Is the seed high in variety purity? Will they germinate high for the particular crop? Was the germination test made within the last six months? Is the seed free from weed seeds which will cost time and money to get rid of in the future? Is the seed free from troublesome seeds of similar varieties or other crops? If the answer is "no" or "I don't know," Coffey says you don't know enough about your planting seed to plant them. Replanting increases the cost of production and upsets the time table of work and poor stands do not produce top yields, explains the agronomist.

It is true that the cost of seed is a minor one in the whole farming operation, points out Coffey, but seed are the reason the farmer plows, fertilizes, irrigates and harvests. Therefore, he adds, it is just good business to start with the best.

He suggests a close check of the tag on the seed container for the information that is needed to insure seed quality. And for detailed information on the best adapted varieties and hybrids for any particular area, visit with the local county agent. Also, on the same visit, Coffey suggests you check with him on the latest information on cultural practices.

Area Churches Asked to Take Part In H-SU Days

Abilene — Baptist churches of the Abilene area are being asked to observe "Hardin-Simmons University Days" May 5 and May 12 by inviting H-SU ministerial students to speak at their Sunday services.

These are the two Sundays many pastors may be absent from their churches to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Mo. Thus, use of the ministerial students for the church services will help meet the supply needs of pastors and churches in the area. It was pointed out by Dr. Clyde J. Hurst, sponsor of the H-SU Ministerial Alliance.

The two Sundays also will fill a need of ministerial students by providing them with an opportunity to preach and gain experience in that field, Dr. Hurst said.

Executive board of District 17 of the Baptist General Convention of Texas has endorsed the "Hardin-Simmons University Days" program and the Rev. L. L. Trott, district missions secretary, is making contacts with churches in the area to help line up the ministerial students as supply preachers.

SAFETY MEASURES FOR USE OF TOXIC INSECTICIDES GIVEN

Today is not only the Space Age. It is also the Chemical Age. One of the main benefits of living in this chemical age is availability of numerous pesticides. They have been essential for the improvement of our agricultural output and therefore for raising our standard of living. Also, these pesticides have been helpful in the control of many insect borne diseases. Unfortunately, the most effective pesticides are often the most toxic and precautions against them the most difficult to enforce. In 1962, 13 Texans died as a result of mishandling of these toxic materials.

1. Follow the instructions on the manufacturer's label to the smallest detail.
2. Store toxic sprays and dust away from children and irresponsible individuals, as livestock, foods and animal feeds.
3. All regular handlers of phosphorous insecticides should have cholinesterase tests at regular intervals not greater than 10 days during the periods they are working with the materials.
4. All applicators should avoid breathing dust, vapors, or spray from insecticides.
5. Respirators, which meet the specifications of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, should be worn when handling or working around highly toxic insecticides.
6. Freshly laundered protective clothing and gloves should be worn when sprays and dust are being applied.
7. If toxic insecticides are spilled on the skin or clothing, work should be suspended and the person involved should bathe and change clothes.
8. Individuals handling toxic insecticides should bathe and change clothes immediately after completing jobs or during any extensive breaks.
9. All personnel and livestock should be protected from drifts of spray or dust.
10. When toxic insecticides are applied to agricultural plants such as cotton or grain the fields should not be reentered for three days after application.
11. Toxic insecticides should be kept away from flames and sparks when being diluted for application since many solvents used in preparing insecticides are highly inflammable. (Feature from the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Legislators have received two proposals for spending the state's money during the two years starting September 1.

One came from Gov. John Connally, the other from the House Appropriations Committee.

Governor Connally's suggestions marked the first time a new governor had tried to work worth of salary increases for faculty members and more research and library facilities, as a means of holding good professors and attracting new ones.

To finance his program, Connally suggested that the "temporary" corporation franchise surtax, which has been extended twice before, be retained. It would provide about $11,000,000 a year.

He also suggested that the 1961 sales tax law be revised to begin taxing clothing under $10, farm implements and all sales of food by restaurants, and to raise the sales tax on cars and trucks from 1.5 to 2 per cent.

Clothing tax proposals would bring in $10,000,000 a year. Motor vehicle tax increase would provide $2,500,000. Farm implements tax would run $1,000,000.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

MARCH 14, 1963

Five quickly developed from rural legislators over the proposed expenditures totaling about $3,100,000,000 during the coming two years.

Before Connally laid out his proposals to the legislature, he invited Texas newspaper editors to Austin to show them how the state's complicated fiscal structure works. His "illustrated lecture" revealed that the legislature has actual control over only 15 per cent of the $3,100,000,000. Rest already is earmarked by constitutional and statutory provisions.

WILL FARMERS FOOT EDUCATION BOOST? — When Rep. Don Garrison of Houston spread before the House Revenue and Taxation committee his bill to boost the Available School Fund by $3,000,000 a year, a spokesman for Texas farmers and ranchers registered a strong protest.

Rep. Bob Bass of DeKalb proposes a 25-cent minimum tax assessment on each acre of undeveloped mineral estates.

STRONG SUPPORT FOR SCREWORM BILL — Rep. Jack Clark of Nocona had 50 co-signers lined up when he introduced a bill to provide $2,840,837 as the State's matching share of the $12,000,000 federal-state-private screwworm eradication program.

Since it is backed by Gov. Connally's strong recommendation the bill should be off to a good start.

But the House Appropriations Committee didn't include a provision for screwworm eradication in its 300-plus page appropriations bill.

Crain said Legislators would seek a separate appropriation to cover the proposed state contribution.

CARS FOR COMMISSIONERS — When county commissioners stopped asking the legislature to authorize horses and wagons and won the right to drive pickup trucks on their appointed rounds, they thought they were thoroughly mechanized.

increase the annual motor vehicle registration fee by $1 with the income going to our state parks.

If the Legislature approves Cole's license plate cost increase, the question will be submitted to voters at the general election of November, 1964.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

Garrison plans to get the additional $3,000,000 by amending the state law that allows a 98 1/2 per cent exemption refund from the State Motor Fuel Tax for gasoline not consumed on the highways. His bill would cut the refund to 73 1/2 per cent.

That 25 per cent cut would be credited to the school fund.

Charles H. Huff of the Texas Farm Bureau said almost half of the new school fund money—about $1,500,000 a year—would be coming out of the pockets of farmers and ranchers.

Airlines and private plane owners, who get about 30 per cent of the refund, would be the second biggest contributor to education under Garrison's bill.

Four members of the subcommittee named to study the bill are from ranch or farm country—Reps George Cook of Odessa, Ben Barnes of DeLeon, William Dav's of Midland, and James L. Slider of Naples. Rep. F. Lee Dugan Jr. of Houston is the fifth member.

HOUSE VACANCY ELECTION — As soon as government officials began recovering from the shock of the news of the sudden highway death of Rep. James L. Lattimore of Corpus Christi, they began studying the election code to see what must be done about filling the seat he left vacant in the House of Representatives.

Customarily, if a vacancy occurs in the legislature when it's not in session, the governor leaves the calling of the election up to local officials.

But since the 58th Legislature will be in regular session until May 27, Governor Connally is expected to move fast to provide Nueces County with a needed voice in legislation. A late-April election date has been predicted.

Law states that the governor must call an election within 20 days. But it also provides that candidates must file 30 days before the election.

Last time a tragic death crippled the Legislature was on March 23, 1957, when the late Charlie Heitmann, representative from the Nacogdoches area, died. Gov. Price Daniel gave election notice on March 28 of that year. A new representative was elected in May, in time to spend some three weeks with the 55th Legislature.

MINERAL ESTATE TAX PROPOSALS — Proposals to set up tax procedures on mineral estates, severed from the land, have been filed by Reps. Emmett Lack of Kountze and Clyde Haynes of Vidor.

Proposals are part of a package that should be favored by small-tract landowners and independent oil and gas producers.

One piece of the package is a constitutional amendment to increase the Railroad Commission from three to five members.

Second would give the Legislature the authority to "establish the duration of any interest in an undeveloped mineral estate."

Texas Landowners and Independent Oil and Gas Operators Association contends that some major oil companies hold onto undeveloped mineral interests for an unreasonable length of time.

Two other bills by Lack and Haynes are aimed at forcing development of mineral interests.

One provides that mineral interests would revert to the owner of surface land if no development attempt is made for 10 years.

Second provides for a county tax assessment of no less than $5 an acre, if the mineral estate isn't developed.

As their operations became more streamlined and pickups no longer were necessary, some switched to automobiles. But a pickup is not an automobile, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr ruled. So Williamson, Cochran, Hockley, Terry and Yoakum counties are asking authority from the 58th Legislature to buy cars for their commissioners.

Harris, Tarrant and some Panhandle counties discovered the difference for themselves some time ago. They already have authority to decide whether pickups or autos would be best for commissioners' transportation.

BLANKET HOSPITAL BILL — Last November, Texas voters decided to let the Legislature authorize the creation of hospital districts. Already many bills have been filed to create individual districts.

Now Rep. H. G. Wells of Tullia proposes legislation to give every county the right to create a hospital district within its own boundaries.
